5 Ways Ollie Can Help You Do More

It's not easy being a teen. For many, it's crunch time to find a job, do well in school, make the team, get the part, do the hours, earn the credits, make a difference, and get into college. In a world where everyone is doing more to get ahead, being exceptional takes effort. Even the most ambitious teens sometimes have a hard time finding ways to stand out. But Ollie can help!

1. Make money doing the things you love.

Find interesting jobs that don't conflict with practice, after school activities, homework or sleep.

2. Use your strengths to give back.

Are you great at math? Soccer? Chess? Put your talents to good use by tutoring, mentoring or coaching.

3. Network more effectively.

Establish trusted relationships with connected adults who share your interests and passions.

4. Engage with the community.

Find rewarding service opportunities, or create your own with like-minded dreamers.

5. Become a genuine leader.

Impress colleges by creating authentic and unconventional ways to stand out.
